- 1. The Executive Committee of the Federation of Communists of Yugoslavia (FCY) met on 22 May to discuss the forthcoming visit of Soviet leaders to Yugoslavia. The following persons were designated to confer with the Soviet delegates: Marshal Tito, Aleksandar Rankovic, Edvard Kardelj, Rodoljub Colakovic, Franc Leskosek, Ivan Gosnjak, Vladimir Bakaric, Blazo Jovanovic, Milentije Popovic, Djuro Pucar, Miha Marinko, Lazar Kolisevski, Krsto Popivoda, Veljko Vlahovic, Petar Stambolic, and Velkjo Zekovic.
- The talks are expected to last several weeks. Following a top level discussion along general lines, the conference will probably adjourn to Moscow, where the lesser lights will hammer out the details.
- 3. The meeting will be more along the lines of a conference of Party chiefs rather than a meeting of chiefs of state. Emphasis will be placed on the regularization of the status of the FCY within the framework of the world Communist movement rather than on foreign policy.
- 4. Tito is not expected to drop the Balkan Alliance or disavow its military clauses.
